Loretto, PA

Present: Mary Ellen Bayuk, Molly Burnett, Todd Eicker, Dwayne Hilton, Mary Lou Kennedy, Victoria King-Garwood, Ron Lunardini, Mary McGinnis, Rosemarie McShane, Joe Merkle, Ken Miller, Joe Puzycki, Janette Schumacher, Charmaine Strong, David Wilson

Absent: Beth Clark, Maria Navea-Mitchell, Dennis Riegelneegg, Tom Steiner

I. President D. Wilson began the retreat at 2:30 p.m. by welcoming participants to St. Francis University. Fr. Christian, President of the University, welcomed the Board and wished the group a successful retreat.

II. At 3:00 p.m. Dr. Jeanne Steffes, Director for State/International Divisions for ACPA's Executive Council addressed the group via teleconferencing on "The History and Cultural Context of ACPA and its Relevance for Today's Education Leaders".

III. Joe Merkle, past president of PCPA, then talked about "PCPA: Past, Present and Future".

IV. The group broke for dinner at 5:00 p.m. and resumed its session at 6:30 p.m.

V. President-Elect D. Hilton gave a brief report on the 2002 Conference. Deb Swarner from Penn State has agreed to co-chair the conference. Hilton is looking for a second co-chair. Currently there are six people on the conference committee. He is exploring a site closer to the center of the state. The request was made to avoid holding the conference over Columbus Day Weekend.

VI. The evening meeting ended at 8:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by
Mary Ellen Bayuk, Recorder
